the great number of women who have attained a high standard. It is most surprising thing, however, is that although men players are more numerous than ever, there is not a single one who shows the form of a coming champion. With a few exceptions they cling to the base line game, depending upon long, tireless rallies rather than adopting an aggressive game with proficiency overhead.

"The outstanding feature of this year's championship tournament is the superb play of Woking, who has made his forehead shot the most reliable and the speediest I have seen. He always enters the court in the pink of condition. To this I attribute his defeat of Wright."

Wright will sail Tuesday on the Saxonia. Great interest is taken in England in the Jeffries-Johnson fight. There is much betting at the clubs, with Johnson as the favorite. The newspapers are arranging to issue extras giving the result of the fight, which cannot be received here until 11 o'clock at night.

RAID WEATHER
The weather at the Newmarket races was wretched. Black coats and skirts and heavy furs were the order of the day. The racing, however, was not deterred by the storm. Among those who took parties to the races were Lady Cooper, Mrs. Murrugh O'Brien, Mrs. Bradley Martin, Mrs. Chauncey and Mrs. A. Glasgow.

The weather spoiled the masque which was given by the Shakespeare memorial theatre committee in Lord Lansborough's garden. Titled ladies and statesmen's daughters were duly arrayed, acted as Puck, Titania and the like in gauzy raiment and short skirts, despite the wintry rain. Among the American women present were Mrs. George Cornwallis West, Mrs. John Leslie, Mrs. Lewis Harcourt, Mrs. D. Beatty and Mrs. M. Graham.

DRAGON WEDDING
The marriage of Miss Dorothy Deacon and Prince Radziwill will be celebrated this week. The wedding will be held at the church of St. George, where the church has yet been selected. The delay is due wholly to the necessary legal formalities, which cannot be completed under three weeks owing to the slowness and red tape of Russian official circles.

BRAGANZA BABY
The Duchess de Vizier, formerly Anita Stewart of New York, will have her infant daughter christened on Monday. She will be named after distinguished relatives of the Duke, who was formerly Prince Miguel of Braganza. The child will have several Christian names, including with Therese and Marie. The Duchess is still gaining every day and the house is thronged with inquirers as to her health and that of the child. A King's messenger called in behalf of King George and Queen Mary.

SOCIAL NOTES
The two concerts given by William Waldorf Astor on Monday and Thursday were splendid functions. The leading opera singers appeared. Mrs. Spender Waldorf, formerly Pauline Astor, and Mrs. Waldorf Astor, wife of the son of the host, acted as hostesses.

Every one prophesies much belated gaiety for July. About seventy notable weddings are scheduled, with the usual luncheons, dinners and bridal parties.

Mrs. R. McCreery, Mrs. A. Glasgow and Mrs. M. Graham will give musicals. Mrs. Lewis Harcourt will give a formal dinner.

The Lyceum Club celebrated its sixth anniversary on Monday with a dinner, which was attended by all the Americans now in London.

Among the passengers on the Mauretania for New York are Martin W. Littleton, Henry W. Cannon, Mrs. Buchanan, Winthrop, Adolph Lewisohn, R. B. Mantel, Robert G. McGinnis, Mrs. A. L. E. L. Enck, Kate Forsyth and Bayard Dominick.

On the Celtic is A. M. Carlisle, head of the shipbuilding firm of Harland & Wolff of Belfast.

VATICAN CONCILIATORY
Prepared for Reform in Spanish Concordat Pope on Retreat.

Rome, July 2.—In an interview the Marquis Gonzales, first secretary of the Spanish Embassy to the Vatican, said today:

"The negotiations between Spain and the Vatican continue, and are not likely to be interrupted, as the Pope realizes the necessity for reform in the Concordat. He is willing to make reasonable concessions. The press reports of the situation in Spain are greatly exaggerated. The fall of the Cabinet is not imminent."

At the same time the negotiations are at a standstill.

The Pope is attending a week's retreat. He is giving no audiences and transacts no business. He spends the day in spiritual exercises, renouncing even his daily walk in the Vatican gardens.

MADRID, July 2.—One person was killed during a fight between Clericals and Anti-Clericals at Geta in the province of Murcia last night. There had been a service in the village of Romani Catholic church, and the priest in the course of an address made a violent attack on Prime Minister Canalejas.

The people became greatly excited, and after the services a fight started in the streets. But for the prompt arrival of the gendarmes a bloody battle would have been fought.

The Weather.
The weather in Italy prevailed generally over the Mediterranean yesterday, giving great relief to the drought-stricken Southern States east of the Alps. In the North, however, the weather was more variable, with showers in the evening.

High temperatures prevailed over all the country east of and including the central States. In the Ohio Valley and States west of the great lakes the temperature was about 70 degrees. The conditions were favorable for growing crops in nearly all sections.

In the West, the day was cloudy and sultry and continued warm, with light to fresh westerly average winds, 40 per cent. humidity. The temperature was about 70 degrees.
